Caving in of approach roads of Sarita Vihar flyover

3021. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the approach roads on both sides of Sarita Vihar flyover, a project taken up by DDA, caved in within a couple of months of its inauguration due to sub-standard material;

(b) if so, the outcome of the inquiry made by Government into the use of the poor quality of material; and

(c) the action taken by Government in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) No, Sir. Delhi Development Authority has reported that the approach roads on both sides of Sarita Vihar flyover did not cave in. However, minor heaving was observed on the bitumenous surface due to excessive rain.

(b) Central Road Research Institute in its preliminary report has intimated that heaving of surface was due to poor drainage. The pavement composition at failure section were found to be as per design specification. No distress either in the flyover or in approach roads has been observed.

(c) The necessary repairs to bitumenous surface have been carried out.

Misuse of Baba Khimman Singh Park in Ashok Vihar

3022. SHRI SURYABHAN PATIL VAHADANE: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item regarding the misuse of Baba Khimman Singh Park (District Park) in Ashok Vihar, Phase-III, New Delhi and damage of a large chunk of green area, which appeared in the Times of India, dated the 5th July, 2001;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether he has instructed DDA to ensure that the trees and green area in general and that of Baba Khimman Singh Park are not ruined;

(d) whether the DDA has not complied with the instructions; and

(e) if not, the action proposed by Government to be taken against the guilty officers of DDA?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) and (b) In the news-item published in the Times of India dated 5th July, 2001, it has been reported that DDA has been allotting space in Baba Khimman Singh Park for Ram Lila function thereby damaging the plants and trees of the park.

(c) to (e) The Government has instructed DDA to ensure this park is not used for purposes other than green and trees/plants are not cut or damaged. The DDA has reported that it has complied with the instruction of the Ministry.
